Letter from the Editor

The new semester is in full swing and at TFLA, we are excited for all the professional development opportunities we have coming up. We are enjoying the regional workshops and we look forward to the Summer Institute and the Fall Conference. It’s going to be a great year and we are thrilled to have you as part of this World Language community.

We are looking for the best student art related to world language education to be the cover of our next TFLA Journal. Have your students submit their art via PDF to publications@tfla.info by April 1, 2018. We look forward to seeing the wonderful submissions!
Call for Journal Manuscripts

TFLA welcomes a variety of articles related to foreign language and second language acquisition. The audience of the TFLA Journal includes educators and administrators of all levels of foreign language education. Consider submitting your article related to foreign language teaching strategies or research in foreign language. Membership is not required for submission.

The following manuscript requirements should be followed for article submissions:

- Formatting Guidelines - Submissions must adhere to APA 6th edition guidelines.
- Photographs - Send photographs as separate files.
- Language - Articles should be written in English, but may include examples, words, and short statements written in other languages. Please include the English translation for these words.
- Length – Article length is limited to 5,000 words.
- Publication – The submission must not be published, in press, or under review anywhere else.
- Submission - Please submit articles electronically to publications@tfla.info

Please submit articles by April 1, 2018 for the Spring 2018 edition. If you have any questions, please contact Lauren Snead, Director of Publications at publications@tfla.info.

Congratulations to Jennifer Melgar!

Our TFLA Teacher of the Year won the regional SWCOLT Teacher of the Year. She will compete at the national level at ACTFL in November.
In honor of T. Earle Hamilton, founder of the Texas Foreign Language Association, scholarships ranging in amounts from $250 to $2,500 will be presented to outstanding high school seniors who have completed at least the third level of second language study and who plan to continue the study of a foreign language at the college/university level. TFLA members may nominate one graduating senior each year. The TFLA Scholarship Committee will select scholarship winners based on academic language study and plans for continued language study.
