

Texas Foreign Language Association
Foreign Language in Elementary Schools (FLES) Scholarship Form

Each year the Texas Foreign Language Association awards scholarships to deserving FLES teachers to attend the National FLES Institute of Texas (NFIT) in conjunction with the National Network for Early Language Learning (NNELL). The National FLES Institute of Texas is a 4 ½ day intensive institute which is held at The Hockaday School in Dallas. The mission of the FLES Institute is to provide teachers and administrators with the skills, knowledge and hands-on activities needed for successful FLES programs. For more information, please contact Marcela Gerber, founder and coordinator of the National FLES Institute, at mgerber@mail.hockaday.org.
